The Centurion's Servant

Find the five differences in these two pictures.

A Roman army officer, called a centurion, came to Jesus and said, "My servant is paralyzed." Jesus started to go to the centurion's house to heal the servant, but the man said, "You don't have to come. You can just say the words and my servant will be healed." Jesus was amazed at the man's faith, so he spoke the words and the servant was healed.

Make a double sided bookmark

- cut out the items below
- match the words with the person
- arrange and glue one person with their words onto one side of coloured card
- turn the card over and do the same on the other side
- decorate
- punch a hole in the top of the bookmark and tie with ribbon or wool

Just say the word, Jesus, and I know my servant will be healed

I have not found such great faith,
even in Israel

Solution

LUKE 7:1-10 (NIV)

1. When Jesus had finished saying all this in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum.
2. There a centurion's servant, whom his master valued highly, was sick and about to die.
3. The centurion heard of Jesus and sent some elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come and heal his servant.
4. When they came to Jesus, they pleaded earnestly with him, "This man deserves to have you do this,
5. because he loves our nation and has built our synagogue."
6. So Jesus went with them. He was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to say to him: "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I do not deserve to have you come under my roof.
7. That is why I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed.
8. For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, 'Go', and he goes; and that one, 'Come', and he comes. I say to my servant, 'Do this', and he does it."
9. When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel."
10. Then the men who had been sent returned to the house and found the servant well.
